Privacy Policy

Anishnawbe Health Toronto is committed to protecting your personal information.

- ❖ We protect your personal information.
Anishnawbe Health Toronto (AHT) is responsible for the information it holds about you and has policies about the confidentiality of this information.
- ❖ AHT limits collection of information about you.
AHT collects information about you so that we can provide you with health care and services as well as meet our reporting and legal obligations.
- ❖ Our health care practitioners include: Traditional Healers, Physicians, Nurses, and a variety of other skilled Practitioners who provide quality services to you and to the community.
Your information may be shared among our Practitioners who are involved in your care in order to be able to help you most effectively.
- ❖ Your consent is required.
Every client/patient (or his/her legally authorized representative) will sign an agreement about how we can use your personal information.
- ❖ We use personal information only for the purposes you have agreed to unless the use or sharing is permitted or required by law.
AHT will not use your personal information for purposes other than care or services to you, evaluation, or managing and planning of services unless you agree or unless we are required by law.
- ❖ Safeguarding your personal information.
AHT will protect your information and ensure its privacy.
- ❖ Ask about our privacy policies and practices.
A staff person can provide you with information about our policies and practices related to the management of personal information if you ask (and we will respond within a reasonable period of time).
- ❖ You have a right to access your record.
You have the right to request access to the information we have about you. You can request access to your information by simply writing us a note and signing it. The Centre will follow-up on your request.
- ❖ Questions or concerns?
